

Community provided funds, products services to trail project

July 15, 2010

Editor,

We would like to take this opportunity to say a hearty "thank you" to the donors of the Leadership Hazleton Environmental Education Area located at the Rails to Trails site. This community service project was dedicated on National Trails Day, June 5.

The community support of funds, products and in-kind services enabled the Leadership Hazleton project team to assist the Civic Partnership with this addition to the "Trails" site. We recognize the wonderful commitment to the community of the following donors and we sincerely appreciate your kind support.

In addition to a big thank you to the Standard-Speaker for their coverage, we also want to recognize the following:

Gold Thumb Donors: DeAngelo Brothers, Inc., CAN DO Community Foundation, Eagle Rock Resort, Hazleton City Authority, Barry Isett & Associates, Inc., PNC Bank and PA DCNR Growing Greener Grant, and the Poconos Forest and Waters Conservation Landscape Initiative.

Green Thumb Donors: Security Savings Community Foundation, Frank and Christine Cabell, Rick and Lynn Patton, City of Hazleton, Conyngham Valley Kiwanis Club, Coopers Tree Service, Greater Hazleton Association of Realtors, J&S Landscape Design, Kulaga Trucking, LCCC Alumni Association, Leader Data Processing and Leaders Data Processing Employees, McCarrie Custom Homes, Bob and Heather Nenstiel and family, Northeast PT Associates Inc., Radznel's Outdoor Specialties, Valley Tutor, Visitainer Nursery, Walko Landscaping and Gardening and J. Busch and Sons Trucking, Hazleton Area Career Center and volunteer students, Gould's Supermarket Inc., Leader Data Processing. Also, thanks to Joe Clark, George Puhak and Ed Dudeck.

Thank you on behalf of the 2009-2010 Leadership Hazleton Rails to Trails Environmental Education Area Team: Al Omuschak, Dianne French, Joan Slepiewski, Jose Rodriguez, Michele Fisher, Tamara Huey, Nancy Mensinger, Heather Nenstiel, Tony Sandutch, Nina Temchatin and Bob Skulsky.

Pat Korb,
Leadership Hazleton