

CIVIC PARTNERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP – Jack St. Pierre, second from left, chairman of the Greater Hazleton Area Civic Partnership scholarship program, presents the 11th annual technology scholarship to Justin William Rossi, a 2007 graduate of Hazleton Area High School. Rossi, the grandson of Eugene and Jean Marie Rossi, will attend Luzerne County Community College in the fall where he plans to major in computer programming. The goal of the two-year, $6,000 scholarship is to keep professionals and technicians in the area. Looking on are Bob Skulsky, left, executive director and Donna Palermo, president of the Greater Hazleton Chamber of Commerce and partnership vice chairman. Additional information concerning the scholarship or the partnership can be obtained by calling Skulsky at 455-1509.
