

Greater Hazleton Rails to Trails

Monday, February 7, 2011

6:06pm

Bob Skulsky, Paul Oswald, Tom Orgazalek, Bob Sagen, Ray Youngblood, Jim Koval, Joann Cortese, Steve Stantopolis

Paul Oswald, District Executive of Boy Scouts of America, spoke on Scouts Venturing program

- minimum of five youths
- have own insurance – no cost for us
- five advisers needed, one of whom is chartering partner
- $15 per year (pro rated) fee to join for youth
- adviser and parent/guardian must sign off on application
- background checks are performed
- two leaders will be with kids at all times
- youth run program

Hoagie and Pizza sale started

- $4 hoagie at Third Base
- $4.50 cheese and $5 pepperoni Longo's Pizza kits

Outdoor Life Expo

- March 24-27
- Towards Williamsport
- Will have information booth

Phase II

- (Name withheld) providing pro bono backfill and grubbing services
  - we will need volunteers to drag brush to mulcher
- signed agreement with Cabot for land access

Phase IV

- Scheivo waiting for what we need to do

NTD 8

- Date changed to June 11 to avoid conflict with ACS Relay for Life

Live Well Luzerne Grant

- $1500 for event at trail and exercise/play-station at trail (pending)
- $500 for providing information to others

Ended 7:33pm